

Dear Sirs,

Our local Fox affiliate is part of the Sinclair group and plans to air an anti- John Kerry film right before the election. This is tantamount to an in-kind contribution to the Bush campaign and, therefore, they should be require to give equal time to the Kerry campaign

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. That is not happening in this case.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
